NATIONS WARNED TO RESPECT U. S. NEUTRALITY

SENATE TAKES NOTICE OF VESSEL'S SEARCH BY FRENCH WARSHIP

Washington, Oct. 17.--Protest against a forcible search of the American Merchant Ship Metapan by the French Cruiser Conde in Caribbean sea was filed in the senate today by Senator Thomas. A letter was submitted by the senator from R. W. Patterson, a passenger on the Metapan, who said officers of the Conde forced five Germans on the vessel to sign parole agreement binding them to fight against the allies in the European war.

"When we are performing our duty to maintain neutrality," said Senator Stone, "nations involved in war should be very careful to recognize our rights and to keep faith with us."

"If they fail to do so then the responsibility of violating the rights of a neutral power will rest on their heads. The government of the United States will maintain its position, but it is well for other nations to know that we will not look with indifference upon the violation of the rights and privileges of our own government or our own citizens."

Senator Thomas declared that the "outrage" as reported by Mr. Patterson called for prompt investigation by the state department.

The letter set forth that the Conde stopped the Metapan between Cartagena and Puerto Colombia on Sunday, October 4, at 1:30 o'clock in the morning. Two armed officers and two soldiers from the Conde, Mr. Patterson wrote, boarded the Metapan, which with other vessels of the United Fruit Company fleet had been recently transferred from British to American registry. The captain of the Metapan, the letter said, assembled all of the passengers in the dining saloon of the Metapan, while the naval officers examined the ship's papers. Later five young Germans, who were bound for Colombia, and who, according to Mr. Patterson were "on board a neutral vessel plying between neutral ports" were "forced to sign a parole in order to procure their liberty."

"This was an outrage committed on American soil, under the American flag," said Mr. Patterson, "The passengers of an American vessel were all practically imprisoned by French officers and men."

Mr. Patterson said that the captain and practically all of the officers of the Metapan were British subjects and that the captain served the French "with alacrity." The letter declared that Isaac Manning, the American consul at Barranquilla who was also on the vessel, had drawn up a report to the state department of the incident which he had entrusted to Mr. Patterson for mailing.

Senator Thomas' statement caused Senator Stone, chairman of the foreign relations committee, to interrupt proceedings of the senate with a warning to belligerent nations to respect the rights of the United States as a neutral nation. He asserted that belligerent and neutral nations had certain war defined rights under international law.

WAR BULLETINS

Germans Moving West

London, Oct. 17---8:25 a. m.---The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Flushing, Netherlands, sends the following regarding the movement of German troops in northwestern Belgium:

"The German troops are leaving Ostend for the west. Approximately 5,000 are now lodged in the public buildings of Ostend. Two thousand have left Zeebrugge and there are no Germans between Hoyst and Sluis. The Germans billeted at Bruges are behaving well, but those at Maldeghem have caused considerable damage."

ANTWERP MUST SUSTAIN TROOPS

London, Oct. 17.—In a despatch from Rotterdam date Friday, the correspondent of the Star telegraphs that it has been reported there from Rosendaal, Holland, that the German government of Antwerp has decided to forego the huge indemnity spoken of at one time in favor of the demand that the city shall support the 15,000 German soldiers who seems to have been left in Antwerp as a force of occupation. The people of Antwerp are not allowed to close their doors at night, the correspondent continues, but they must keep lights burning in their halls.

FIGHTING IN AFRICA

Paris, Oct. 17.--The Havas Agency has received a despatch from Barcelona saying that travelers arriving at Las Palmas in the Canary Islands from Africa, report that there has been heavy fighting between German troops and English and French troops in Kamerun, the German colony of West Equatorial Africa.

RECEIVER FOR MOTOR CO.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 17.--The Marion Motor company, one of the largest automobile manufacturing concerns in Indiana, is to be in the hands of the Fletcher Savings and Trust company of Indianapolis as receiver. The action was taken on the petition of the American Foundry company, which alleges that the Premier company owes it $4,691.75 and is in danger of becoming insolvent.

STAND BY THE PRESIDENT

ENGLAND HAS JUST BEGUN TO FIGHT, PAPER SAYS

London, Oct. 17—The Times' military correspondent replying to the Frankfurter Zeitung's statement that Great Britain was unable to raise more than 600,000 troops says:

"We have at the present moment exactly double that number, namely, 1,200,000 men and the number grows almost faster than we can cope with. This is only the beginning.

"It is our way, as well as that of America, to begin to raise our arms after war breaks out and to go on raising them until our ultimate ends are achieved. With 1,200,000 men at home, the army in the field and the hundreds of thousands forming in India, Canada, Australia and elsewhere are merely the nucleus upon which other armies will be eventually built.

"It is only a question of time. It stands to reason that an empire of 400,000,000 can never lack that enthusiasm. This war for us has hardly begun. We have sent merely an advance guard into France. In the spring the remainder of the advance guard will follow and somewhere toward the end of 1915 the main body will begin to come within view.

"We are sorry for the allies that we are even slower than Russia in making our weight felt, but a year or so hence, when the allies need a rest, we shall be in a position to make good.

"Nothing can arrest the steadily ascending figures of our army. Their cost is of little account since Germany will ultimately pay in territory as well as money.

"Imagine things at their worst, imagine the last Cossack on the Urals and the last French doorkeeper ejected from Bordeaux. Then we would begin a guerilla war against Germany and still be no worse off than when we began war against Napoleon."

DUTCH STEAMER DRIVEN ASHORE

London, Oct. 17—In a dispatch from Dover the correspondent of the Evening News says the Dutch Tubantia of the Royal Holland Lloyd line went ashore on the coast of Kent today while on her way to Rotterdam from Buenos Aires, which port she left Sept. 25.

The Tubantia is believed to have a considerable number of passengers on board. Assistance has been summoned from Dover and other ports.

Russia Mines Gulfs Of Riga And Finland

Petrograd, Oct. 17. The Russian admiralty has announced that because of the presence of German submarines in the Gulf of Finland and the sinking of ships in Russian waters by the enemy, it has been compelled to declare that [illegible] certain zones of Russian waters, especially those near the Gulfs of Riga and Finland and the Livonian archipelago, must be considered as dangerous.

In order that noncombatants shall not run risks the entrance and exits of the Gulfs of Riga and Finland, it is stated, are considered closed from the moment of the publication of this notice.

DUNKIRK, ON FRENCH COAST, NOW SCENE OF FIERCEST FIGHTING

Berlin, Oct. 17, by wireless---According to announcement made in Berlin today German troops in the vicinity of Ostend have reached the North Sea and fighting is going on as far to the west as Dunkirk. Belgium today appears to be almost completely in German possession.

The French and British troops are reported as cut off on all sides, particularly around Ypres.

London, Oct. 17.—German forces as was predicted have occupied Ostend near the sea where the German right wing and the allies left are struggling in the latest phase of what was once the battle of the Aisne. Reports reaching London say that German imagination has been fired by the taking of the Ostend and the cry is not only "on to Calais" but "on to Boulogne."

What progress if any the Germans have made since they entered Ostend Thursday morning is not known here, but their next objective apparently is Dunkirk. Opinion in England seems to differ as to what part the British fleet would play should the battle continue to skirt the coast line and the reports that British dreadnoughts would back up the French, British and Belgian forces from the straights of Dover seems to originate from German sources.

London Deprecates Misfortune

London papers generally deprecate the importance of the German occupation of the Belgian coast pointing out that the British mine field prevents the enemy bringing ships to operate from the none too spacious harbor of Ostend. The fact remains, however, that as the fighting gets geographically nearer to England, the public heretofore discussing and speculating on a Zeppelin raid, is bound to ask itself what will come next.

It is unquestionably true that if Germany is able to engineer submarine attacks from a base further away Ostend, if held by the invaders, certainly would be of some strategic value.

The allied left is holding its ground. At some points it is even moving forward, having occupied Lavente, driving the Germans back in the direction of Lille. One report had it that the Germans had been driven out of Lille but this has not been confirmed. The presence of Uhlans has been reported recently within 10 miles of Calais but a glance at the map in the region of the cavalry clashes of the last few days, which for a time extended as far west as Hazebruck, shows that notwithstanding the German claims of victory the allies have made steady progress, Lavente being considerably east of the town mentioned.

Little definite news came during the morning of fighting along the Vistula river, where the Russians claim to have repulsed a German attack. Whether the German advance on Warsaw has been permanently checked only the future can show. One version has it that the Germans are preparing to winter in Poland.

Germans Loose 42 Guns

According to a despatch from Petrograd dated Friday but received here today the Russians have now opened their attack along the entire line with special energy in the south where General Brusiloff's cavalry is said to have captured Austrian defence[illegible] together with trains carrying reinforcements and supplies. In retreating from Warsaw it is said, the Germans left 42 guns intended for the siege of that city.

Barbers And Bosses "Dicker" For Scale; Not Together Yet

The boss barbers of the city, at a special meeting Friday night, decided to offer the journeymen a compromise wage scale of straight 60 per cent.

The boss barbers now the stand $22. At present they receive $12 that this was the journeymen's own proposition and that they would much rather pay that way, as it would have a tendency to make the barbers work more steadily.

The talk among journeymen Saturday indicated that they would reject the compromise and that next week will probably find the bosses alone, and only the bosses themselves at work. The journeymen demanded $15 per week and half over and half over $20. They claim that the committee in presenting the new demands to the bosses had not stated their position clearly and that the "straight 60 per cent" proposition referred only to such bosses who do not pay a weekly guaranty.

PEERLESS PORTSMOUTH EMPIRE IS ENDORSED

The movement to establish a Peerless Portsmouth Empire was warmly endorsed by the Board of Trade at a meeting held Friday night. This organization approved the plan along enthusiastic lines and will at its next meeting take up the establishment of such an organization in a more concrete form. Resolutions heartily endorsing the Peerless Portsmouth Empire will be adopted and sent to the various Grange Societies of Scioto county.

"The idea is a capital one and the business men of Portsmouth and farmers of Scioto county should lend their moral and financial support to the movement. A better understanding between the merchants and the farmers is sure to result in mutual good. It will provide for a better market ing place for Scioto county raised products and will be the means of bringing the farmer in closer touch with the men who supply his wants" said an official of the trade board Saturday.

Business men throughout the county have taken up the movement in a qualifying manner and the plan to establish a Peerless Portsmouth Empire, an organization whose sole purpose would be to get the farmer and the local business man on a more intimate basis will redound to the good of the entire county.

The board of trade at its meeting last night also went on record as endorsing the County Experiment Farm movement. The following resolution of endorsement was unanimously adopted:

Whereas petitions containing signatures of 51 per cent of the electors of Scioto county have been filed with the Board of County Commissioners asking for the establishment of a County Experiment Farm in Scioto County.

Be it resolved by the Board of Trade of Portsmouth, Ohio, that we endorse the County Experiment Farm movement and that we petition the Commissioners of Scioto County, Ohio, to establish such a farm.

And Whereas, the Board of County Commissioners have decided to be submitted to the electors of this county at the coming election a proposition for the purchase and [illegible] of such a farm.

Be it resolved that the Board of Trade [illegible] and [illegible] the proposition and urge upon the electors of Scioto county the necessity of voting favorably upon the proposition.

Be it resolved that the Secretary of the Board of Trade be instructed to forward a copy of these resolutions to the Commissioners of Scioto county, Ohio.

The Man Who Drinks Looks Into The Mirror

A Little Confession Along The Line of Personal Rights and Privileges

"Our rights leave off where other people's rights begin," says a Quaker City philosopher. That's worth looking at from the angle of SELF.

Say I'm a man who drinks and don't care a rap who objects.

Am I wiping out the rights of wife and babes by spending on booze the money that ought to go for same.

If every man who drinks would see himself as others see him, well wishers, every one, who hope that liquor will not get the best of him there would be fewer heart aches and bigger nest eggs in many homes now darkened by the shadow of the drink habit.

Many a wrong is committed in the name of liberty and the man who in this generation of enlightenment accepts pouring alcoholic poison into his system is simply tossing over a destroyer that is never satisfied unless home, happiness and happiness are all placed upon the altar of [illegible]

It takes a man to break with liquor. Weaklings hang on and abjectly surrender, but thinking men everywhere are doing like Jack London did—putting a curse on liquor and turning away from it.

The man who finds himself craving liquor can rid himself of all such appetite by taking the Keeley Neal Treatment, which, in three days, changes desire for liquor to intense dislike of everything alcoholic.

There are no dangerous hypodermic injections given, for this treatment is internal and taken wholly by mouth. It is administered in over three score Neal Institutes in the United States, Canada and Australia. In Cincinnati, Captain C. M. Holloway's fine Avondale Home is now occupied by the Neal Institute. To stay there three days is just like enjoying a little vacation in a splendid, elected home. There is no publicity. Come and see for yourself or write for free literature. PLAN TO BOOST PEERLESS CITY AT THE EXPOSITION

Portsmouth's fame as a manufacturing center, its many handsome business blocks, newly paved streets and its High School, pretty church and interior and exterior views of its enviable chain of industries will likely be shown during the Panama Exposition to be held next year in San Francisco.

This became known at the monthly meeting of the Board of Trade held Friday night. All the directors were present and matters affecting the welfare of the city were taken up and disenssed from all angles.

The Famous Factories of the World Committee, whose headquarters are in Dayton are in communication with the board relative to picturing the Peerless River City in the Panama Exposition and it is quite probable that an arrangement to this end will be completed. The board is going to submit the Dayton firm's proposition to the Manufacturers' Association of this city and this organization will be asked to approve the matter and to stand its portion of the expense, which will be quite heavy. The trade board directors expressed themselves as being heartily in favor of the proposition.

"Such a movement would result in Portsmouth receiving publicity that would do more to establish it as a manufacturing center than any other form of advertising," said an official of the trade board, Saturday. "This matter is going to be weighed carefully by the directors as they are anxious to embrace such a golden opportunity to give Portsmouth some wholesome and lasting publicity."

The board at its meeting also placed its stamp of approval upon the one per cent tax limit amendment, which has been endorsed by many of the industrial organizations of Ohio. It is one of the amendments to be voted upon in November.

MRS. WILLIAMS SEEKS DIVORCE

As a sequel to the disorder of Friday evening, in which they were principals, Mary Williams, through her attorney, Harry Ball, filed suit for divorce in common pleas court from her husband, Roy Williams, whom she married in this city on December 24, 1906. They have one child, Alice, aged 7 years.

Failure to provide, extreme cruelty, habitual drunkenness and adultery are the grounds cited in the petition against her husband, whom she charges with leading a life of idleness, profligacy, and dissipation. She claims that she has been compelled to work in a laundry, keep boarders, and take in washing at night in order to support her self and child.

She also prays for an injunction restraining her husband from visiting her home or molesting her in any way. The court allowed a temporary injunction.

ROCK ISLAND PROBE SHOWS LOSS OF VAST SUM IN FRISCO DEAL

Washington, Oct. 17.—Some details concerning the acquisition and subsequent sale at a loss of millions of the Frisco lines were developed today when the investigation into the financial operations of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway was resumed before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

George C. McMurtrey, of New York, a director of the Rock Island operating company and of the New Jersey holding company of the Rock Island, gave testimony tending to show that the board of directors practically was dominated by Daniel G. Reid. The witness said he knew personally very little concerning the financial operations of the several companies. Asked about specific transactions—including the Frisco deal and the payments of money to Directors Jackson and Cable, for which no explanation had been given, the witness said that he could remember nothing about those matters.

"I didn't have time to go into such details" he said.

Upon cross examination, Mr. McMurtrey said that, as usual in such company operations he relied upon the reports of the executive committee which had direct charge of them.

George T. Boggs, of New York, a director of the Rock Island operating company and an official in various capacities of that company for many years, giving his version of the purchase and subsequent sale by the Rock Island of the Frisco lines, said he believed it to be for the best interests of the Rock Island to dispose of the Frisco stock to B. F. Yoakum and his associates even at the loss which the Rock Island was obliged to take in the transaction.

"The time and condition had changed" said the witness and it was necessary for us to do the best in the circumstances."

"You believe, then" suggested Solicitor Folk, "that the board of directors of a railroad has a right to do what it pleases with the company's money, with respect to the general public?"

"I do not quite understand the question," said Mr. Boggs, "the board of directors of this property, for instance, does what it deems to be proper in any circumstance. As to the bond transaction of $17,500,000, at the time the Frisco stock was sold to Mr. Yoakum, it was necessary that those bonds should be redeemed, before the stock could be passed to the new ownership."

Mr. Boggs said as a director he approved of that transaction and of the loan of $7,500,000 made through the First National Bank of New York because he believed it would effect a saving to the Rock Island railway.

"As a director of the Rock Island railway did you cast your vote according to instructions?" asked Mr. Folk.

"No, I never did. I acted upon my best judgment."

New Haven Decree Provides For Final Co. Disintegration

New York, Oct. 17.—The disintegration of the great railway, trolley and steamship transportation monopoly built up in New England during the past 12 years by the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad company is prescribed in detail by the decree filed today with the federal court by Attorney General Gregory in the government's dissolution suit.

Briefly, the railroad trust must shear itself of vast holdings of trolley and steamship lines and must part with certain railroads brought under its domination, including the Boston and Maine, forever and public auction if necessary.

The control of many of the New Haven's subsidiaries passed today with the filing of the decree, from the road's directors who have so long managed them into the keeping of fifteen men, termed trustees, and acting as officers of the federal court. These men will rule the subsidiaries until such time as they are weaned, by sale, permanently from New Haven domination.

The time limit says final parting varies; but in no case is it to be deferred beyond July 1, 1919.

U. S. IS "DRUG INTOXICATED"

Washington, Oct. 17.—The amount of money expended annually for drugs and medicines in the United States is out of all proportion to the real need of requirements of the people, according to the public health service today in a report on the deleterious effects of the indiscriminate use of drugs on the human body. The report deals with "drug intoxication" which it it asserted is an economic waste and a menace to public health.

Five hundred million dollars is the price American people pay annually for drugs and medicines, it is declared.

Ghent Garrisoned And Order Restored

Amsterdam, via London, Oct. 17.—The Sluis, Netherlands, correspondent of the Telegraaf, says that General Jung has been appointed commander of the German garrison at Ghent, which numbers 4,000 men. The soldiers are not quartered in private houses, but in public buildings. No alcohol is sold to the soldiers who are under the strictest orders to prevent looting. Ghent had to produce hostages who, however says the despatch are permitted to stay in their own houses. The Germans seized the money in the postoffice and in the town treasury. The schools have been reopened and the Germans hope soon to resume the railway traffic between Brussels and Ghent.

Large supplies of provisions and clothes have arrived at Sluis for the Belgian refugees. A majority of the fugitives have no idea at the present time of returning to Belgium. The situation at Bruges is quiet.

Fighting Continues Along East Battle Line Near Przemysl

Vienna, Oct. 16 via Amsterdam and London, Oct. 17, and London 11 p. m.—It was announced officially in Vienna today that the fighting continued yesterday, Thursday, along the entire front from Stry and Sambora both to the southeast of Przemysl to the mouth of the river San.

"In Marmos Sziget, Hungary, the enemy has been pursued by Austrian detachments which have occupied Polic.

"In the valley of the Black Bistritza the Russians are resting. Our troops have followed them to Zidlochowice."

The river Bistritza and the town of Zidlow are in Galicia about 70 miles southeast of Marmos Sziget, the Hungarian frontier and to the northeast of Marmos Sziget.

Big Fleet Observed Crossing North Sea

London, Oct. 17.—Telegraphing from Copenhagen under date of Friday, Oct. 16, the correspondent of the Daily Mail relates that a Norwegian sea captain, who has arrived there from Stavanger, Norway, declares that during his crossing of the North Sea on a trawler, he saw the members of his crew observed a fleet, consisting of about 20 cruisers and some transports.

Coming from a direction, it looked as if these cruisers were covering the voyage of some commercial ships which, in the opinion of the captain, were undertaking a vital expedition. The fleet was moving slowly.

Information has been received to the effect that during the past week German cruisers and torpedo boats stationed south of Falsterbo, stopped eighteen Scandinavian steamers and searched them for contraband. None was found. These vessels were on their way to Russia, England and France. Falsterbo is a Swedish port on the Baltic, not far from Malmo.

The proclamation will give such assurance that no one who has been employed by the Americans shall be persecuted for that, although it is an offense for which the law provides severe punishment.

It was suspected that the acts of General Aguilar after all were subject to the decision of his superiors in the Mexican capital, but Mr. Silliman in reply said that the responsibility was wholly Aguilar's. The president's representative said he believed that the General's promises to accede to the demands made would satisfy Mr. Wilson.

During the conference General Aguilar disclaimed responsibility for the hostile demonstration made in front of the American lines on Thursday night. Mr. Silliman was [illegible] Vera Cruz by 5:30 specific. The proclamation will give such

Traffic Via Panama Canal Satisfactory

Washington, Oct. 17.—Despite the general check on business in consequence of the European war, and the interference by war vessels with the shipping of belligerent nations, traffic through the Panama canal in the first month and a half of its commercial service exceeded the expectations of Colonel Goethals. Up to October 7, one hundred vessels had passed through the canal since its opening and the traffic was increasing rapidly, though this has unfortunately been checked temporarily by the new slide in the Culebra Cut.

A picturesque fleet which passed through the canal recently was composed of four Norwegian steam whaling vessels which had been operating in Magdalena Bay on the Lower Mexican coast. The whalers had had a good season, netting 20,000 barrels of oil valued at $300,000, after eight months' work. By using the canal the fleet expected to arrive home in Norway about four months earlier than by the longer route around south America, and to save between $5,000 and $10,000 in actual expenses of travel after paying the canals tolls to the amount of $3,000.

CARMAN TRIAL JURY

Mineola, N. Y., Oct. 17. Excellent progress has been arranged today for the beginning of the trial on Monday of Mrs. Florence Carman for the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey in the office of Mrs. Carman's husband Dr. Edward Carman, at Freport, on [illegible] last. "In Belgium the German troops occupying western Belgium, have not crossed the line running from Ostend to Thourout to Roulers to Menin. There is relative quiet along the greater part of the front.

"On our left wing there has been no change. In the region of Ypres on the right bank of the Lys, the allies' troops have occupied Fleurbix, as well as the immediate approaches to Armentieres.

"In the region of Arras, and also in the vicinity of St. Mihiel we have continued to gain ground.

"In the Russian field of operations there has been no change of importance on the front of East Prussia.

"Along the middle reaches of the Vistula river the Austro German army have been driven to defensive along the entire front. To the south of Przemysl the fighting continues, and the Russians have taken 600 prisoners."

West Virginia, Santa Rosalia, Mexico, Oct. 16 By wireless to San Diego, Cal., Oct. 17.—The mutinous Yaquis who murdered Major Aenaya, the military commandant at Santa Rosalia on October 6 and seized the Mexican steamer Kerrigan III, with intent to raid and capture forces California for General Francisco Villa, sailed today for Guaymas, after levying a forced loan of 21,000 pesos on the Boleo company "French" which controls important copper mining concessions near Santa Rosalia.

It is pointed out that conditions affecting the New York exchange do not obtain here and there will be practically no danger of foreign liquidation with trading confined to local stocks and bonds.

OPENING PUBLIC LANDS

Washington, Oct. 17.—As a special inducement to home settlers to settle more than one million acres of land recently opened to public entry in the Fort Peck Indian reservation, northeastern Montana, Secretary Lane today invoked use of the enlarged homestead act permitting tracts of 320 acres each, instead of 160, to be filed upon. Large areas of these lands, however, are so situated that no water available at reasonable cost for irrigation work.

The company has announced its intention of laying a track in the section of Euclid avenue, never before traversed by electric cars.

World's Wheat Crop Less Than Last Year; U. S. Breaks Record

Washington, Oct. 17.—The world wheat crop this year probably will be less than in 1913 and 1912, although the United States had a record breaking wheat crop. Statistics announced today by the department of agriculture indicate the crops of all countries aggregate approximately 3,711,018,000 bushels against 3,740,000,000 bushels in 1913 and 3,577,000 bushels in 1912.

European agriculture of most countries has season have been unique for only moderate crops, the department announces. It is practically certain that the present shortage of this season's European yield will be made up by the complete returns. Crops were pretty well over before the grain is believed to have been saved in generally good condition except in territory occupied by the contending forces."

Great Britain according to official figures reports a crop of 72 million bushels larger than the year before. In France the official estimate of production has not been declared but it is believed the crop probably will exceed that of last year. Italy indicates a good yield and Spain an increase over last year. From Germany and Austria no intimation of the harvest is available, but indications point to a decrease as indicated by reports from Roumania and the United States suggests short yields. Official cables place the crops of 23 governments of Europe and Asiatic Russia at 2,000,000,000 bushels below the exceptionally large crops harvested last year.

Great Britain, Italy, Spain, Portugal and Russia normally produce more than two thirds of the European wheat, show this year 1,000,000 bushels less than last year, 40,000,000 bushels less than 1912. Great Britain will have 2,000,000 more than either year, Russia will have 18,000,000 less than a year ago. The reduction in other European countries probably will make the aggregate approximately 500,000,000.

The principal non-European wheat producing countries, The United States, Canada, Argentina, British Indian and Australia which grow all the wheat produced outside of Europe except Russia, normally report, 1,583,606,000 bushels or 80,000,000 bushels less than last year. The combined output of the United States and Australia exceeded last year by 110,000,000 bushels.

Of the 892,000,000 crops harvested in the United States, 525,000,000 bushels, it is estimated will be required for food in this country and 77,000,000 bushels for seeding. This will leave 290,000,000 bushels available for export. The largest quantity ever exported from the United States heretofore in one year was 225,000,000 bushels in 1901. Last year 141,000,000 bushels were exported.

Columbus, O., Oct. 17.—If Milton M. Tuteur, now under arrest at Lima, had been able to forget his baby girl, he might be yet a free man. A War-Proof Investment

Many kinds of bonds and securities have been affected by the European war and declined seriously in dividends and values.

There is fortunately one sort of investment that the general disarranged business conditions have not touched and that is a savings account in our bank. The principal is always adding to the value there of.

Nothing in fact so much shows the wisdom of having a savings account as a war. It provides for the unforeseen that such contingencies bring, it gives you something to fall back on, an anchor in time of stress.

There is no more opportune time to start a savings account than right now. If you can make up your mind to put aside something regularly under present conditions you can put aside more when world wide conditions get back to normal.

We'll start you with as little as a dollar and compound interest thereon three times a year.

A lecture on the subject of "Today in the Land of Tomorrow," will be given at the First Presbyterian church at 7 o'clock Thursday evening, October 22nd. No admission will be charged and by prompt attendance all those who wish to do so will be able to attend the temperance lecture later in the evening. Mr. Robert Brown, who is to give the lecture, is a returned missionary from Mexico, and his description of this thrilling experience at the time of leaving his home, in one of the suburbs of the City of Mexico, is intensely interesting. Besides being an entertaining lecturer, he is possessed of a voice of beautiful quality and will sing several songs in the Mexican language. Mr. Brown's father was a member of the 89th O. V. I. during the war and was captured and held captive at Libby prison for several months. The heroic spirit of the father lives in the son and we are expecting quite a treat in his lecture for Thursday evening. Every one is welcome. Come and bring your friends.

The guests all came attired en masque, with the exception of the bride-to-be, who was surprised when surrounded by ghosts, witches and all sorts of spooky-looking individuals. After all had assembled the bride-to-be was led upstairs, where a fortune-telling booth had been arranged. The old witch told her of treasures to be found in a certain place in the house, where she was sent and here she discovered all sorts of delicious fruit, which will add much to her housekeeping supplies for the winter. When she ascended the stairway to the witch's tent one of the spooks played the wedding march from Mendelssohn. Those present were Misses Verda and Elizabeth Blackburn, Pauline and Bessie Mick, Lucy and Mary Lamett, Edith Lindsey, Anna Beeson, Bessie McFarland and Mrs. Fred Keyes. After the masks were removed, ice cream and cake were served. The favors were pink roses.

Paxtine

A soluble Antiseptic Powder to be dissolved in water as needed.

As a medicinal antiseptic for douches in treating catarrh, inflammation or ulceration of nose, throat, and that caused by feminine ills it has no equal. For ten years the Lydia E. With the blessing of the chimes Father McGuirk's desire to have the church towers properly chimed will be gratified.

The magnificent new Holy Redeemer church, which stands as a monument to the faithful efforts of Rev. J. E. McGuirk and his progressive congregation. The church is recognized as one of the most complete houses of worship in Ohio.

This picture shows the chime frame on which are placed the different toned bells.

Chime of Eleven Bells

The bells are in the key of E flat concert pitch, by the founders' imported instruments. Thus—

Eb, F, G, Ab, A, Bb, C, Db, D, Eb, E.

This chime of bells has a wide range in playing capacity; in fact the number of tunes that can be played upon this set of bells is practically UNLIMITED, as there are thousands of tunes within its range or compass.

These bells are doubly attuned, so that the same fullness, tone richness and brilliancy obtains throughout the entire set. If any thing should occur to injure any of the bells, new ones can be made promptly by the founders to accurately replace them without making any test of the others in the tower.

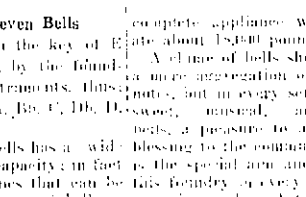
The total net weight of the bells is nearly 30,000 pounds, and with the frame supportings and complete appliances will aggregate about 18,000 pounds.

A chime of bells should be not a mere aggregation of so many notes, but in every sense a set of sweet, musical, mellow toned bells, a pleasure to hear and a blessing to the community. Such is the special aim and effort of this foundry in every set of bells manufactured and here success is the wonder of every purchaser; there are thousands of tunes within its range or compass.

How Chimes Are Erected

The chimes are played as above shown, it being necessary to make the frame to fit the inside space of the tower. The main features of hanging the bells and the connecting appliances for the Chiming Console on a lower floor are in all cases substantially alike.

This is the most substantial method of chime hanging, and by this method the expense of maintaining them at proper condition is less than $10 per year for all time.



This is a picture of the chiming console which contains 11 levers corresponding to the bells.

The Chiming Console, as pictured above, is a combination of levers, rods and adjusting nuts. This shows a thoroughly strong and substantial construction that is reliable. It is made of open grain oak, highly polished in an oil, and will remain in perfect finish. The playing mechanism is of the best and most durable construction, and will stand for many years.

The action is noiseless and prompt, in fact a piano action on a large scale, and affords a very satisfactory modulation. A quick STROKE, not a mere push and the note rings out clear and sweet from the belfry without any jar on the tower.

The Dedication of the Bells

Longfellow is set forth the chief functions of the bells.

"I praise the true God, I call the people, I assemble the clergy, I bewail the dead, I disperse the storm cloud, I do honor to feasts, I hasten the laggards, I drive away the evil spirit, I proclaim peace after bloodshed."

"Over the city's ways of sin,
Ring out, sweet bells! Gather them in!
Tell them of Christ unchained,
Who leadeth men with teachings mild!"

Mrs. Sophie Fox Shea

How appropriate are the beautiful lines of Sir Thomas Moore.

"Those evening bells! Those evening bells!
How many a tale their music tells!
Of youth, and home and that sweet time,
When last I heard their soothing chime!"

I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness. "Prepare ye the way of the Lord." In such words of heavenly music was the voice of St. John the Baptist heard in the wilderness of this world, inviting the wayward children of God to seek true happiness in Jesus Christ the Savior of mankind.

So in this commercial age in which we live may the Christ Chimes, by their sweet [illegible] from the towers of our beautiful temples, direct [illegible] to the source of their [illegible] mankind.

Ceremony of Blessing of Church Chimes

The essential and significant [illegible] the blessing of the [illegible] A careful reading of the prayers will enable the reader to understand the meaning of the rites and the uses for which the Catholic church destines bells. It should be remembered that in Catholic countries the church bells are rung during violent storms, the people meanwhile being engaged within the church in prayer. This practice will explain many things otherwise unintelligible in this rite.

Bells destined for sacred purposes are blessed by the Bishop before they are set up in the sacred tower.

The bells are appropriately decorated with flowers. The ceremony of blessing will take place on the esplanade immediately in front of the church doors so that all who are present may witness the solemn rubrics.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop vested with amice, alb, cincture, white stole and cape, and plain mitre, holding in his hand the crozier accompanied by deacon, and subdeacon, preceded by cross bearer, acolytes and a thurifer, book and candlestick bearers, mitre and crozier bearers, chanters and master of ceremonies, leaves the Sanctuary and repairs to the place prepared for blessing of the bells.

The Solemn Blessing of the Salt and Water

After the chanting of seven psalms, the Bishop standing, blesses the salt and water using the following prayers:

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who made heaven and earth.

I exercise thee, O creature of salt, by the living God, by the true God, by the holy God, by the God who commanded thee to be cast into the water by Eliseus the Prophet, that the correctness of the same might be healed, that thou become salt for the preservation of them that believe, and be to all who take thee salvation of soul and body; and from the place wherein thou shalt be sprinkled let every delusion and wickedness of the devil, and let all unclean spirits fly and depart when adjured by Him who shall come to judge the living and the dead, and the world by fire.

R. Amen.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

We humbly implore Thy immense clemency, Almighty and Everlasting God, that at Thy invocation Thou wouldst deign to bless and sanctify this creature of salt which Thou hast given for the use of mankind; let it be unto all who take it health of mind and body; that whatsoever shall be touched or sprinkled with it may be freed from all uncleanness and delivered from hurt. Let not pestiferous breath nor corrupting air dwell there; let every enemy that lieth in wait depart, and if there be aught which hideth ill to the safety or peace of the inhabitants, let it flee away at the sprinkling of this water. That they, being healed by the invocation of Thy Holy name, may be defended from all that rise up against them. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who with Thee liveth and reigneth in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. Amen.

Bless, O Lord, this water with a heavenly benediction, and may the power of the Holy Ghost come upon it so that once these bells prepared for calling together the children of Holy Church, have been washed with it there may be kept far away from warfares of these bells may subdue the power of those lying in wait, the shadow of spectres, the ravages of whirlwinds, lightnings, strokes, the dangers of thunder, the disasters of tempests, and every breath of storm; and when their clangor shall fall upon the ears of Christian children, may an increase of devotion be given to those, so that hastening to the mount of their loving mother the Church, they may sing to Thee in the Church of the Saints, a new canticle of peace, by whose perfect dispensation shall exalt the shrill trumpet note, the soft thinking of the harp, the sonorous sweetness of the organ, the joyous exultation of the drum, and the silvery sound of the cymbal; and thus, by these acts of devotion and to their prayers, may there God come into the holy temple of Thy glory, the multitude of the angelic hosts. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who with Thee liveth and reigneth in the unity of the same Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

Here the Bisagr puts salt in the water, in the form of a cross, saying at the same time:

Let this [illegible] a mixture of salt and water, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

R. Amen.

LOCAL GERMAN'S VIEW OF THE WAR

By Major Lewis F. Korth, Former Editor of The Correspondent

Friday, October 16, 1914.

Antwerp fallen—Galicia clear—gain of Russians—Hindenburg with his army before Warsaw. These are the great war events recorded for the week.

With the occupation of the big Belgian fortress on the sea the first phase of the war in the West is ended. Belgium is out of the war as a war factor. The small Belgian fighting force which was not captured or driven into Holland (20,000) will be taken care of by their victors. The main result of their success is that their communications through Belgium are safe now.

The damage done to the city of Antwerp by the bombardment is not as large by far as was first reported. The part of it where the cathedral, museum, picture gallery, the palace, guild hall, railroad depot, etc, stand were not touched. The Germans used shrapnel not shells, and the battery chiefs were given plans for their guidance furnished by the American embassy. King Albert was willing to surrender the city before the bombardment to save it from destruction, but the British promised relief, which did not come. Three British naval brigades participated in the defense. One retreated into Holland, the border of which is only a few miles to the north, the other to Ostend, 20,000 prisoners were taken. The siege of Antwerp only lasted eleven days. Excuses will have to be counted out after this.

The efforts of the allies to relieve Antwerp and to cover the coast by their late movement from Arras and Albert to the north, were frustrated by the counter movement of the Germans to the Scheldt, blocking the way. They have taken Ghent and Ostend on the sea, where King Albert after his flight from Antwerp couldn't stay long enough to take tea with the English admiral. He transferred himself and his government to Havre, France, where they really belong. The cavalry is operating all between the country west of the Scheldt and it is reported that they had two victorious encounters with the French cavalry.

Object of this movement is the capture of Dunkirk and Calais on the English Channel.

In the East the Russian offensive, the great hope of the Western Allies in their extremity, has failed. Czar Nicholas will not go to Berlin, not right now. He has contented himself, for the present at least, with defending his own domain.

At the beginning of the war the Russian armies were to invade Austria. One was defeated at Krasnik (by Dankl) and Zamosc by Auffenberg) in South Poland and driven back to Lemberg, the other reached Lemberg (Eastern Galicia) and the Austrian was checked at Przemysl from where since half a dozen victories have been reported in Petrograd.

Austria was handicapped in the west by a slow mobilization and by revolutions from Servia and Montenegro. She also had to keep one of observation in Italy and another in Transylvania against Roumania which are now available in part partly.

Several days have passed. Two years ago the Servian army of invasion was signally defeated at Losnica (Slavonia) and the Austrian army in Galicia has just defeated the Russians at Przemysl, capturing 40,000 prisoners and driving the invaders back to the San river toward Lemberg.

It is reported from Vienna, that Austria defends all.

The German army under General Hindenburg, which by forced marches from East Prussia reached Warsaw on the Vistula river, Warsaw, just in time to have saved pressed Austrian army from defeat the Russian attempt to cross the Vistula river Ivangorod after a bombardment with the Russian fortress and is now near Gross Warsaw. So far it has 7,000 new prisoners. The Prussia Hindenburg reinforced force for border defense caused the Russians to start a flanking movement from Kowno to Schirwindt, which were defeated with several thousand prisoners.

The fighting on a line known to Lyck, especially Wirballen, has been for almost two weeks.

The greatest of helpless cities have recently taken place of the Shan-Tung officer from Tsing Tau was a military necessity, since military necessity excuses Japan in the British ally from absolute neutrality is due to Germany as an invasion. Consistency is a jewel.

One of the last acts of the Belgian government at Antwerp was the publication of "The Graybook" with all the documents relating to the war, from which is seen that Belgium began as early as July 24, with her mobilization. This was before Servia had answered Austrias ultimatum, over a week before diplomatic relations had been severed between the nations now at war, and when Emperor Wilhelm wa still on his summer vagation in Norway not thinking of war. It proves that neutral Belgium acted with the allies and that these as early as July 24, were ready for war, while Germany was yet endeavoring to adjust the Austro-Servian trouble and, if that was impossible, to localize the conflict.

Among the archives of the Belgian General Staff have been found plans for the landing of a British expedition of 100,000 men in Dunkirk, Calais and Boulogne, worker out by the English military attache in Brussels in 1906, a map with the strategical positions of the French army and a report of the Belgian ambassador at Berlin, Baron Greindle, on the same subject.

This tallies with the documentary evidence of Belgiums alliance with France and England which the German government claims it had already before the war. It makes Belgian neutrality illusory, the German embassador in Washington holds.

Most of the new 42 cm. mortars which played such a big part in the bombardment of Antwerp have been sent to Belfort for the same work. Fourteen of the heaviest freight cars were required for the transport of two of the guns in parts and twenty for the 800 kilo weight ammunition. Soon we will hear from Belfort and "Die Tante von Essen," as the Germans call the big gun.

This week the trial of the Servian Conspirators, who on June 28, assassinated the Austrian Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife in Serajewo, which led to the big war, is taking place there. The rescuers of the assassins, a Servian-Montenegrin army, who stood before the gates of the town have been driven off. The investigation of the crime has yielded the fact that the conspiracy against the life of the archduke was initiated and abetted in Belgrade, the Servian capital, with the co-operation of Servian officials and executed with arms from the Servian state arsenal. That the trial will establish the truth of the conspiracy charge is firmly believed in Vienna.

The postal bank deposits in Germany have not decreased but increased since the war. During the month of September 1018 millions mark were booked, 92 millions more than in August. Germany seems t obe as solid as ever. That it enjoys the confidence of the world is shown by the large foreign subscriptions to the war loan after the home quota had been filled.

England is making strenuous efforts to coax Norway and Sweden into joining the allies so she can send her fleet through the Skagerrae and Kattegat. The Scandinavians are not over-anxious to do so. Norway does not want to be converted into an English coaling station. The proud Sweres don't care to join their Finnish cousins as serfs of the Romanoffs.

While Great Britain's armed forces are fighting Germany on land and sea her literary train is villifying it, both at home and in the states. H. Rider Haggard sees in Germany "the world's peril." Germany for the past forty-three years has been busy in the pursuit of peaceful labors, England in the same time has had half a dozen wars of conquest. And war breeds war. The Boers in South Africa have risen. One of the commands sent against the Germans in Southwest Africa has gone over to them.

Petersburg acknowledges the sinking of the Russian cruiser Pallada, of the Bayan class, in the Gulf of Finland, but says he was struck by a torpedo from a German destroyer, not by a submarine as Berlin had it. That doesn't matter. The essentiality of the thing is that Petrogrod for once owns up to the truth.

The English admirally didn't let 24 hours pass in acknowledging the destruction of the cruiser Hawke by a German submarine on Wednesday last.

Like the Belgian has the Servian government been obliged to change quarters again, this time from Nish to Veskuel in the old Turkish Vilayet Monastir, a Servian possession of very recent date. It is more likely that this was done by an Austrian push than by voluntary action.

In spite the enormous transport of men, horses and war material in all parts of the German Empire not a single accident of any consequence has occurred on any railroad so far. Military trains do not run more than 30 miles an hour, and the tracks are patrolled day and night," so says the Prussian R. R. Gazette.

There is a class of German writers who act as if the whole United States were in the ban of King George, Washington leading. It is true that a strong anti-German feeling has been created by the misrepresentations of the Anglomaniacs in the American press, but the truth is gradually coming out. People, intelligent people, begin to see what the English-Jap alliance is leading to in the Far East and in the Pacific. Some time not far off it will become clear to them that the interests of the United States and those of Germany in those parts are as identical as those of Great Britainny and Japan are. Give them the time for it.

Italy and Roumania

Germany has lost a good friend by the death of old King Carol of Roumania, who was a Hohenzoller of the line of Sigmaringen. Prince Bismarck gave him his crown in 1866.

Roumania has been neutral during the late Balkan wars, yielding to German influence, and in the present big war so far. She is the richest and best prepared among the Balkan nations. Russia did much toward securing her independence from Turkey, but after Russia's war with Turkey in 1877-78 she made Roumania give up the rich Bessarabia for the poor Dobrudsha, although the Roumanian army saved the Russians at Plewna when Osman Pasha had the best of them, which has made bitter feeling.

There are many Roumanians in the Bucovina and Transylvania, the far eastern parts of Austria, and Russia is holding out the gift of these provinces to Roumania to have her join the allies.

King Carol could not be persuaded to break with Germany, and the new king, his nephew Ferdinand, also a Hohenzoller, seems to be of the same mind. He is backed in his peaceful inclination by the conservative element, while the radical Pansiav sympathizers are itching for the fight.

The bulk of the Roumanian people are not interested in the Pansiav agitation. They are rather proud of their descent from the Roman colonists, which Trajanus settled a hundred years after Christ in Dacia against the incursions of the Carpathian mountaineers.

The allies have tried all means to enlist Roumania and Italy in the war. Germany has restrained from making promises as well as threats. It is satisfied with their neutrality. And the responsible classes of Roumania seem to be too.

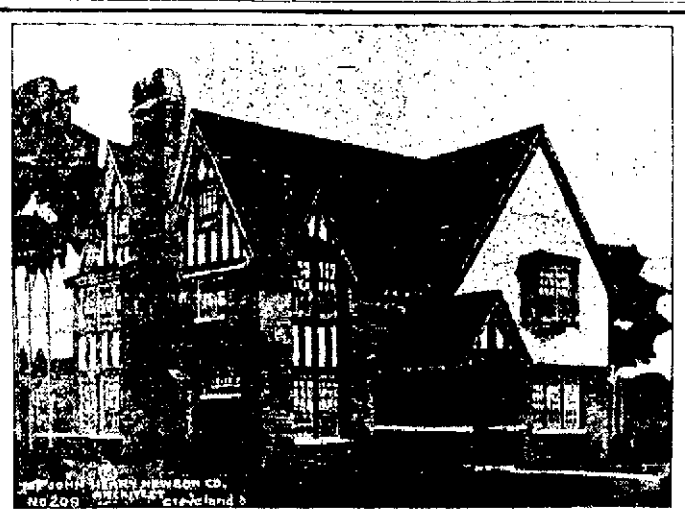
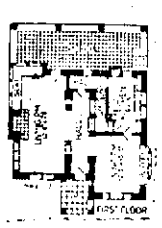
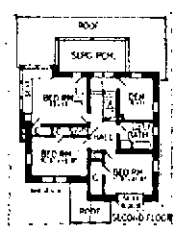
"Home of Character", No. 209



A Modern English Home---By John Henry Newson



This design, 34x33 feet, carried out in brick and frame, after the style of the modern English architects, is one that affords the utmost sunlight upon the interior. The brick is a red velvetbrick with a raked-out joint, and the large gable upon the front is cement plastered, colored a very light cream color, as also the plaster in the panels on the side bays and gables. The flat bay upon the front, which is in reality recessed from the wall line, and the oriel window over the dining room group windows as well as the splendid porch are features highly commendable, and coupled with the twin gable on the side makes this home one that has exceedingly good architectural expression.



The living room and hall are designed to be finished in the same wood and color and are separated by wood posts with bookcases between the posts and the jambs of the opening. The fireplace at the side of the living room is on axis with this bookcase feature and also on axis with the stairs to the second floor, a feature giving symmetry seldom gained and always sought for in planning the better class of house. The seat on the side and rear of the living room forms the completion of the paneled design in a way which is novel and artistic. A rear hall gives access from the kitchen to the front door and the dining room has a built-in buffet. The entrance stoop has a tiled floor, as also the porch across the rear. This feature of the rear porch has been carried out because of the landscape work in gardens at the rear of the house, it being far more desirable to overlook a quiet, peaceful and well planned garden than a vista afforded by a noisy and dusty street. The second floor has three bedrooms, each with closets, and a den off of the stair landing. The bathroom is over the kitchen, and a sleeping porch is provided on the rear off of the main bedroom. The attic is finished with a servants' room and a large room. The space to properly describe this house is lacking, but complete information will be gladly given to anyone interested.

It is difficult to make an average estimate of the cost of a house of this character, as this cost will depend, to a great extent, on the elaboration of detail, as well as the grade of materials and workmanship used. It should be built for about $6000 with a good grade of material throughout.

This home deserves the careful study of anyone contemplating the erection of a house to cost in the neighborhood of $———. Mr. Newson will gladly answer inquiries concerning No. 209 or any other home appearing on this page from week to week. Give the number of the house concerning which you inquiry, and address the envelope to "John Henry Newson, Homes of Character Department, The Times."

This service by Mr. Newson is free to all Times readers.

THE POLITICAL POT

The reports of the registration from the different voting places over the city Friday and Saturday indicate that a heavy vote will be polled at the November election. This is attributed largely to the interest in the wet and dry fight, as the workers in both camps are expending every effort to get out their full vote. It will also result in an unusually large vote in the state, district, and county election, and may upset all pre-election calculations.

The bad weather of the past week proved a blessing in disguise for the Hogan meetings in Scioto county Friday, as large crowds were reported wherever he spoke. The farmers were unable to do any work, and many of them took advantage of the opportunity to see and hear the Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator, whose name has been before the public continually during the four years he has been the Attorney General of Ohio. Local Democratic leaders were pleased with the impression scored by Mr. Hogan and the Congressional candidate, Hon. W. A. Inman, of this city, at each point along the route.

The next big political rally in the city is next Wednesday evening, when Mayor Newton Baker, of Cleveland, will speak at the "Club" auditorium, corner of Fourth and Court streets, in support of the Cox administration and the Democratic state ticket. Mayor Baker is regarded as one of the ablest men in his party in this state, and his appearance here will no doubt attract a large crowd.

Following Mayor Baker comes Hon. Warren G. Harding, of Marion, Republican candidate for U. S. Senator, who will address a Republican rally at "The Club" auditorium next Saturday evening. It will be Mr. Harding's first appearance in Portsmouth in years, and the indications are that he will be greeted by a large audience. The Republican campaign committee is advertising the meeting extensively all over the county. Former Congressman Henry T. Bannon, of this city will act as chairman of the meeting, while Charles C. Kearns, candidate for Congress, will also speak.

Announcement was made at Republican headquarters Saturday morning that Charles C. Kearns, the Republican Congressional candidate, will spend four days in Scioto county next week. He will be assigned to a speaking engagement every night he is here. His first meeting will be at Rarden next Monday evening. Hon. Henry T. Bannon, of this city, will also speak at this meeting. Mr. Kearns' other dates will be announced later.

Friday's Cincinnati Enquirer stated that Speaker Charles L. Swain of the house of representatives, and Hon. W. A. Inman, of this city, were scheduled to address a big Democratic rally at Milford, Clermont county, during the last week in October.

The Republican meeting at Sciotan Friday evening was called off owing to a slight mixup in the arrangements. The speakers were to have been Attorneys N. B. Gilliland, J. T. Micklethwaite and Mark A. Crawford. The meeting at McDermott Saturday evening is a sure go, however, with Judge John C. Milner and Attorney Harry W. Miller as the principal speakers.

Accompanied by a number of Democratic candidates, Hon. W. A. Inman candidate for Congress, and H. Stanley McCall, candidate for prosecuting attorney, left Saturday afternoon for Otway, where they will be the principal speakers at a Democratic rally Saturday night. The meeting has been well advertised, and a large crowd is looked for.

Quite a number of local Republicans went to New Boston Friday evening to attend an informal meeting held at the Republican headquarters in the neighboring village.

The Republican city central committeemen held a meeting at headquarters in the Masonic Temple Saturday afternoon. A meeting of the rural committeemen has been called for next Wednesday afternoon.

The Democratic committee expects to arrange a number of meetings throughout the county during the last two weeks of the campaign. Hon. W. A. Inman and H. Stanley McCall will bear the brunt of the speaking.

The Waverly Watchman has the following article about Hon. W. A. Inman, of this city, this week, which will be read with interest by Mr. Inman's friends and admirers in this city:

"A pleasant incident in the life of W. A. Inman, the Democratic candidate for Congress in our district, was recalled Monday last, on the meeting of Messrs. C. A. Vallery and Inman. Mr. Vallery mentioned that a number of years past two boys by the name of Inman were in his employ as farm hands and for which he paid them the sum of 50 cents each, per day and board, whereupon Mr. Inman made it known that he and his brother were the two boys and of which days he possessed fond recollections. One who has thus come up with his hands to the plow is fitted to represent this great agricultural district in the Congress of the United States."

Sunday will be a busy day among the Home Rule and State-Wide Prohibition adherents, as meetings will be held in both tents during the day. In the afternoon, Dr. William A. Wasson, an Episcopalian rector from Long Island, New York City, will speak at the Home Rule tent, corner of Robinson avenue and Offnere street.

At the same time, Judge Charles A. Pollock, of North Dakota, will address a meeting at the dry tent, corner Eighth and Lincoln streets, and will repeat his address again in the evening at the same place.

Dry meetings were held Friday evening at the following places: Harrisonville, Rev. L. J. Hopper; Lyra, Rev. E. G. Hamilton; Friendship, Rev. C. L. Strecker; Upper Lick Run, Rev. J. W. Dunning; Bear Creek, J. H. Finney and the Pilgrim Singers; Upper Duck Run, W. D. Gilliland; Blue Run, Rev. T. H. McAfee.

Meetings Saturday evening include: Harrisonville, Rev. C. L. Strecker; Lyra, Rev. Green Willis; Friendship, Rev. L. J. Hopper; Upper Duck Run, J. H. Finney; Bear Creek, Rev. E. G. Hamilton; Upper Dry Run, Rev. Albert Marting.

Judge Charles A. Pollock's addresses at the dry tent Sunday afternoon and evening are the first of a series of meetings which will be held every evening until election day. The program for next week is: Monday evening, J. Albert Patterson, of Franklin, Pa.; Tuesday and Wednesday, E. C. Dinwiddie, of Washington, D. C.; Thursday, G. F. Rittenhouse, of Middletown, O.; Friday, Seaborn Wright, of Georgia; Saturday, Howard Russell, of Toledo.

Two big meetings are scheduled at the Home Rule tent so far for next week, as follows: Tuesday evening, Charles A. Wirtuel, of Cincinnati, prominent labor leader and labor commissioner under Governor Harmon; Thursday evening, Hon. F. E. Lloyd, of Illinois, Progressive member of the last Illinois state legislature.

Home Rule meetings were staged Friday evening at Scioto-ville and Wheelersburg, Hon. Vincent Perkins speaking at the former place and Dr. R. Y. Henley at the latter.

Mrs. Perkins will address a Home Rule meeting at Rarden this evening, which has been extensively advertised.

"HANK" GOWDY IS GOING TO CAVORT BEHIND FOOTLIGHTS

HANK GOWDY.

Columbus, Oct. 17.—Harry Gowdy, Ohio's foremost citizen as they say in Boston, arrived last night in the sporting office of the Ohio State Journal that he next week will fill a vaudeville engagement at Hammerstein's theater in Boston. He added that a letter, giving more details as to his plans, is on the way to Columbus.

His home-coming, therefore, hinges upon his success in vaudeville. If he hits as hard in it as he did against the Athletic pitchers, his contract will continue for weeks. It is possible that when he does return, his admirers admirers will be permitted to welcome not only a world-famous athlete but a quietly folk sort of an actor.

Gowdy has never failed at anything he has undertaken. He went to the Lancaster Ohio State League team several years ago as a baseball novice. He buckled to the baseball business and now stands right at the top of the profession.

Even in New York, where it is held to be difficult for natives to see people who perform away from Manhattan, the recent feats of the lanky Columbus kid have been duly noted. Says Sid Mercer in the New York Globe: "When H. Gowdy blew himself on a $20,000 two-base hit Tuesday at Fenway Park in Boston, he gave professional baseball one of the greatest boosts it has ever received."

KONETCHY JUMPS

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—Hunky Dave Bancroft's hoodoo first base job will be overcast with gloom in 1915. Ike Konetchy last week huddled to the Pittsburg Federals. The bait was a three year contract at terms said to be $5,000 per year, and a $1,000 bonus to Konetchy's wife who engineered the deal.

If authorities at Juarez have suspended Dr. Tod, Bill Natal, Lodi, also ruled by it.

SUFFRAGE MEETINGS ARE PLANNED FOR MONDAY

Two well-known exponents of Woman's Suffrage, Mrs. Myron T. Vorce, of Cleveland and Rose Livingstone, of New York, will speak at the Christian church Monday. The general public, whether in favor of granting the ballot to women or not, is invited to attend. The first meeting will be held Monday afternoon, at 2:30, with Miss Livingstone addressing the people at the Christian church. In the evening Mrs. Vorce will speak at the corner of Fifth and Chillicothe streets, at 7:30, the weather permitting. In case of inclement weather her address will be made at the Christian church.

Miss Livingstone calls herself a "social worker," and in New York is known as the "Angel of Chinatown" for her splendid work of the past seven years among the unfortunate victims of commercialized vice.

Two or three years ago Rose Livingstone became convinced that no real social vice would never be abolished until women have the vote. Since then she has spoken for woman suffrage wherever and whenever she has a chance.

Mrs. Vorce, always a suffragist as a matter of simple justice, she early realized women's need of the ballot as a matter of self protection and as a means of service to the state.

Mrs. Vorce's most distinguished qualities are her keen appreciation of humor and her unfailing sense of humor. Nothing is so difficult, so perplexing or so hopeless that she cannot find something funny in it and her attempt to see every question from the point of view of opponent—these two things make her peculiarly valuable in her active work for votes for women.

REGISTRATION HEAVY

Unusual activity on the part of various factions has resulted in an unprecedented city registration. More voters registered this year than ever before in the history of the city outside of a general registration year. This presages an enormous vote at the November election. It was estimated that between 800 and 100 more voters registered.

Ward wandered in a semi-conscious condition to the brick plant where Watchman Charles Finney took him in charge and sent him to the hospital. A large gash was cut in the back of his head and his shoulders were badly bruised. Ward was in search of work and had walked from Huntington.

PLAN NEW COLLEGE

Several local parties are backing a proposition to start a business university in this city. After looking over the local field they have decided that the prospects warrant the establishment of a second business college in the city and the next few weeks may see definite steps toward the consummation of their plans.

Plan New Roadway At The Waterworks

The route and other details of a new roadway leading to the proposed new pumping station to Gallia pike were tentatively agreed upon by the mayor and other officials Friday afternoon.

The main purpose of the road is to provide a way over which to haul chemicals from the railroads from the underground crossing to the filtration plant. Thomas Basham has offered to give the city a 10 ft. strip of his ground there provided it will pave the roadway, the agreeing to share the expense. This with the 20 ft. right of way already owned by the city would give a 30 ft. street. Mr. Basham expects to open some building lots to the west of the roadway.

The Carlyle Brick company will be granted the use of the roadway and under ground crossing for hauling purposes the company agreeing to improve and maintain the roadway leading from the pumping station westward to the underground crossing. This will reduce their hauling distance to the city fully three-quarters of a mile, as at present the company is obliged to do its hauling eastward to Star Yards, thence north to Gallia pike.

The road project will be submitted to city council at its next meeting.

Board Of Trade Plans For Yearly Banquet

The annual banquet of the Portsmouth Board of Trade, which is always one of the largest of affairs of the kind held in the city will take place about the middle of November. It will be held in the quarters of The Club on West Front street. The committee on arrangement include the Messrs. J. C. Bauer, J. D. Bridges, R. G. Bryan, Albert Zoellner and Charley Dachler. The committee on nominations is made up of W. H. Burt, J. W. Brannon, Jr., Frank V. Krauss, Samuel Harchowe and L. C. Tarlet.

An effort was made to have Harry Wheeler, a famous Chicago speaker and who is in close touch with the various boards of trade throughout the country to be the principal speaker at the affair. However he was compelled to turn down the invitation as he will be in New York most of November on important business matters. It was stated Saturday that an effort will be made to get a speaker, whose reputation is in keeping with that of Mr. Wheeler.

Misses Lena and Pearl Reynolds, of No. 17 Mill street, who lost their positions in a shoe factory as a result of the last strike, were furnished with transportation to Maysville, Ky., Saturday. The girls are going back to their former home in Lexington.

Cramps and Backache ?

"I suffered from many pains for four years," says Mrs. Della Gates, of Cobden, Ill. "I was tired and worn out and had the blues. The doctors said I had womanly troubles, but it seemed they could do me no good. I was advised to take CARDUI, and can say after taking 6 bottles, that I just feel fine. It relieved me from pain, and saved my cramping and backache. I can certainly recommend it." Thousands of women who now suffer from womanly troubles could be relieved if they would follow Mrs. Gates' example. Are you one of these? If you need a good strengthening tonic we recommend that you

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't stay gray! Here's a simple recipe that anybody can apply with a hair brush.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is musty and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.

The voice of the Lord is upon the waters: the God of majesty hath thundered, the Lord upon many waters.

Psalm 28.

Bring the Lord, O ye children of God: bring to the Lord the offspring of rams.

Bring to the Lord glory and honor; bring to the Lord glory to His name; adore ye the Lord in His holy court.

The voice of the Lord is upon the waters: the God of majesty hath thundered, the Lord upon many waters.

The voice of the Lord is in power: the voice of the Lord is magnificent.

The voice of the Lord breaketh the cedars: yea, the Lord shall break the cedars of Libanus.

And shall reduce them to pieces, as a calf of Libanus, and as the beloved son of unicorns.

The voice of the Lord divideth the flame of fire: the voice of the Lord shaketh the desert: and the Lord shall shake the desert of Cades.

The voice of the Lord prepareth the stags: and He will discover the thick woods: and in His temple all shall speak His glory.

The Lord maketh the flood to dwell: and the Lord shall sit king for ever.

The Lord will give strength to His people: and the Lord will bless His people with peace.

Glory be to the father, and to the son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

Meanwhile the Bishop makes with the thumb of his right hand, dipped in the Holy Oil of the Sick, seven crosses on the outside of each bell. When the seven unctions have been completed he makes four crosses with chrism on the inside successively on each bell at an equal distance from each other, giving while he makes each cross:

May this signal, O Lord, be sanctified and consecrated. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Let us pray.

Almighty, Eternal God, Who at the sounding of trumpets before the Ark of the Covenant, didst cause to fall down flat the strong walls within which the army of the enemy was entrenched, do Thou pour out upon these bells a heavenly benediction, so that at their sound, the fiery darts of the enemy, Egyptian strokes, hail storms and the damage of tempests may be driven far away: and in answer to the prophet's question "What mind thou, I thou seest that thou didst flee?" (Ps. xxiii 5. Thou Who with the Bishop and the seven priests as was the River Jordan, of the church whose benediction they may give answer: "At the sound of the most blessed sacrament presence of the Lord, the devils will flee away in a solemn chase the were cursed at the presence of the sacraments of the day.

God of Jacob. Who turned the rock into pools of water and the stony hill into fountains of water." Wherefore, not to us, O Lord, not to us, but to thy name give glory, for Thy mercy." (Ps. cxiii 1.) And thus when these bells here present, like the other vessels of the altar, are touched with Holy Chrism, anointed with Holy Oil, may those whose ever assemble at their call be free from all the temptations of the enemy, and may they always follow the teachings of Catholic faith. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy son, Who liveth and reigneth in the unity of the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

The Solemn Incensing of the bells

After this prayer is finished the Bishop puts thyme, incense and myrrh in the chafing dish which being set on fire is placed under the bells in such a manner that all the bells may receive all of the smoke. Meanwhile the chanters repeat a antiphon and psalm. After this the Bishop says the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Almighty Ruler, Christ, Who in the flesh which Thou didst assume, wert asleep in the boat, when the rising tempest disturbed the sea, which directly at thy awakening and command did fall kindly aid thy people in their needs, pour out upon these bells the dew of Thy Holy Spirit, so that at their sound the enemy of the good may always flee, the Christian people may be invited to faith, the hostile may be struck with terror. May Thy people summoned together by these bells be comforted in the Lord, and, delighted, as with David's harp, may the Holy Spirit come down from above. And even as whilst Samuel was sacrificing the sucking lamb as a holocaust to the King of the Eternal Empire, the noise of the rushing winds drove way the multitude of his adversaries; so in like manner, when the sound of these bells pierces the clouded skies, may angelic hands preserve the assembly of Thy Church; may everlasting protection save the fruits of those who believe, their souls and their bodies. Through Thee, O Christ Jesus, Who with God the Father livest and reignest in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. Amen.

The prayer being said, the deacon rends or sings the holy gospel according to Luke Chapter Four. The gospel being finished the Bishop blesses the book of the gospels carried to him by one of the ministers. Then the Bishop reminds the work of consecration by making the sign of the cross over the blessed bells.

After this the Bishop and the two deacons repair to the Sanctuary.

BAD OPERATION AVOIDED

By Timely Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Sowers' Own Statement.

Hodgdon, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or side, headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The moment you feel backache or your kidneys are clogged or disordered, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

The Wise Man

Solomon has been given the best for wisdom by all the right persons who decide such matters. Such a man is worth studying.

Why was he so wise? Did he never do a foolish thing?

Oh, yes. Solomon was human like the rest of us. He had his off-days and he tripped up now and then.

But why was he called wise? Because he was never fooled a second time by the same man or same thing.

There is some excuse for falling once. There is no excuse for a repeat.

SCIOTO RIVER WILL NOT COVER BOTTOMS

"Unless more rain falls during the next twenty four hours the Scioto river will not rise enough to inundate the lowlands," said Judge J. W. Cannon, Sr., Saturday. "The real danger lies in the inability of the farmers to get their corn out before it is damaged by the inevitable rains."

"There is no danger of any of the corn being caught, unless the downpour continues," said John Flannigan.

Three Wives Granted Decrees In Divorce By Judge Thomas

A deputy sheriff had to be pressed into service Saturday morning, to compel the attendance of Minnie Cook, of New Boston, at a divorce action in which he was a defendant and was also subpoenaed as a witness. Judge Thomas awarded her a divorce. She was also restored to her maiden name of Minnie D. Dever.

Cook is employed at the Rudy Kountz saloon in New Boston. He and his wife were married 26 years ago at Sciotoville, and have no children.

In the divorce hearing of Alice Sargent against Ira Sargent, heard before Judge Thomas in common pleas court Saturday morning, Mrs. Sargent alleged willful absence and desertion in her complaint. She stated on the stand that her husband was good humored while under the influence of liquor, but mean and ill-tempered when sober.

Judge Thomas awarded a decree of divorce to the wife, who claims to have been abandoned about nine years ago. The couple were married in Greenup county, Ky., in 1884, and have two children, both of whom have attained their majority. The last heard of the husband he was living in Oklahoma. Couple Married To Save Future Trouble, Other Police News

H. H. Robinson, a music box agent of Clyde, Ohio, and Miss Fay Childers of Jackson, who were arrested at the Schuler hotel Friday night, for unlawfully cohabiting, acknowledged their guilt at a private hearing and were fined $20 and costs each by Mayor Frick Saturday.

The couple admitted they had been living together as man and wife at Parkersburg and Athens and then came to Portsmouth a few weeks ago.

Robinson had a shoulder dislocated in falling from a buggy on Gallia pike a few days after their arrival here. A letter from Jackson signed "A Relative" furnished the police with the clue that led to the arrests. The couple saved themselves further trouble by securing a license and getting married Saturday morning, Mayor Frick tying the nuptial knot.

Holly Whitman was fined $10 with half of the amount remitted, for alleged disorderly conduct. Complaint was made by Gus Soares that a remark Whitman made in passing his pool room resented on him. Holly denied he had intended the remark for the Greek.

"Kinny" Warden, Ben Guthrie, John Davis and John Dickson, who amused themselves singing songs in York Place around the midnight hour and then got into a fight with another gang, drew $10 each.

George Carpenter of McDermott, Lee Leighty of Peebles, and Lester Lewis of Xenia, were fined $10 each for train riding.

Unfortunate Affray Results In Fines

John M. Williams, who was director of public service during the Tynes administration, and his wife drew fines of $10 and costs each from Mayor Frick Saturday for alleged resisting an officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams did not appear in court, instead entering pleas of guilty through Attorney B. F. Kimble. The trouble grew out of a visit made to the Williams home by Officer J. A. Ridings Friday night to serve a writ for Probate Judge T. C. Beatty on Roy Williams. The judge had been at the home previously and had some words with Mr. Williams. Complaint had been made to him that Roy was abusing his wife who just moved into a house on Ninth street near Findlay. Determined to have a talk with Roy he summoned the policeman to accompany him. Mr. Williams, who opened the door, refused to allow anyone to see his son. Judge Beatty, who stood outside, then ordered the officer to bring Roy outside by force if necessary. Ridings entered the house and Mr. Williams attempted to block him. They clinched and Mr. Williams was thrown to the floor. While they struggled on the floor Mrs. Williams and others of the household are said to have attacked Ridings. He finally placed Roy under arrest. The young man's father is said to have called for a gun. Ridings warned him that he had shown respect for his age by not trying to injure him during their struggle but if he armed himself he would act different. Mr. Williams finally yielded. Roy was taken to jail and locked up but was later released.

Mr. Smith, in addition to praying for a divorce, asks the court in his petition to decree to him the ownership of two tracts of land in Adams county, free from the wife's interest. The couple were married in this city April 8th, 1911.

Home Rule Jottings

NO. 3

Don't miss the Watson meeting at the Home Rule Tent on Sunday, October 18th at 2 p. m. or the Wirtz meeting on Tuesday, October 20th at 8 p. m. or the Lloyd meeting on Thursday, October 20th at 8 p. m. There is a treat in eloquence and good hard sense for you at these meetings, and you cannot afford to miss them.

Five Ohio Counties, Clinton, Geauga, Harrison, Highland and Morgan voted dry under the Home Rule Laws known as the Township and Municipal local option laws, before the obnoxious Rose Law went into effect and took from the people of every political subdivision smaller than a county their freedom of choice in the matter of the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The Home Rule amendment proposes to restore this freedom of choice, and the above mentioned counties show that the people of this and every other county and State will still have the right to vote every city and township in the State dry or wet under the laws left undisturbed by the amendment. Vote for this admirably fair proposition.

Is there any reason why a township or a municipality in any county should be told by another township or municipality in that county how to conduct its own affairs? Vote for the Home Rule Amendment.

If the people of Ohio were to wake up one morning and learn that all property in the state used in the manufacture of alcoholic beverages had been destroyed by fire, the news would be regarded as a public calamity.

If it further developed that this destruction was deliberately planned and the fires were maliciously brought about, no language would be considered too severe in denouncing the malefactors.

By the state wide prohibition amendment it is deliberately proposed to [illegible] the torch of fanaticism and legality destroy these millions of property values with resultant consequences more far reaching and revolutionary than would follow any such imagined destruction.

The consequences of the fires would be of passing moment. Not only to the manufacturer and his workingmen. The manufacturer would be at least partially reimbursed in his property loss by insurance and would proceed to rebuild. The workingmen would suffer only a temporary loss of employment. Sellers and consumers of liquor would be supplied through other channels. No vast upheaval of economic conditions would take place and practically business conditions would return to their former level.

With the adoption of the prohibition amendment all the temporary [illegible] would become permanent. Millions of property values would at once be consigned to the junk pile and its value as property abandoned, to a purchaser's expense permanently destroyed. Thousands [illegible] would by automatic legislative fiat be deprived of a livelihood, for which they have [illegible] expensive. Not a whisper from the prohibition forces is heard, to suggest that the confiscation of property shall be met by just compensation, and a wholesome that the workingman and his family, to whom will come want and misery, be rewarded and cared for by the state.

"Most Valuable and Interesting."

THOMAS A. EDISON, Orange, N. J., says: "I believe that at the present time 'The Literary Digest' prints the most valuable and interesting matter of any publication of similar character that I know of."

"Has Become Indispensable"

HON. WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN, Secretary of State, says: "It is unique among the weeklies, combining in one magazine scores of others, and thus has become indispensable to the busy man who would know what is taking place in the world around him."

"Next in value to a good map is a weekly summary by an expert, which will refresh one's memory of what has taken place and will give some new methods of estimating results.

"The very best of these summaries, in my judgment, may be found in The Literary Digest, a weekly publication issued by Funk & Wagnalls Company of New York, and which may be had for ten cents a copy.

"This paper ordinarily gives a review of the most noteworthy news of the world in all departments, with special attention to American affairs.

"Now with this great war as the absorbing topic, the editors devote fully half of their space to a series of admirable reviews of the war from many angles.

"These reviews are written by experts, and they will serve to fix in the mind of the newspaper reader the salient features of each week's events in this tremendous struggle.

"Fully half of these articles are translations made specially from the leading European papers, which give the American reader an excellent idea of foreign public opinion on many phases of the war."—From an Editorial by George Hamlin Fitch, in the San Francisco Chronicle.

"Should Not Like to Be Without It"

"I have taken The Literary Digest for a great many years, and I should not like to be without it. I think it is invaluable to one who wishes to know what is going on in the world, and it gives, I think, with quite as much of the impersonal feeling as is possible to human beings, both sides of every question."—BRAND WHITLOCK, U. Securing Evidence

Attorney Elliott, of the Franklin county prosecutor's office, spent Saturday here looking up evidence against Joe Williams, who is awaiting trial in Columbus for alleged stealing an automobile some weeks ago. Williams tried to dispose of the car to Fred Winters, saloonkeeper of Second and Market streets.

THE MARKETS

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Bullish reports about the Australian crop helped make the wheat market today continue to advance. It was said the total yield in Australia would be 75,000,000 bushels short compared with that of the previous twelve months and would virtually wipe out any chance of exports. Estimates that world shipments next week would be less than the average required were also adverse to the bears. After opening unchanged to ¾ higher, the market steadied not far from the top level reached.

Corn hardened with wheat. Shorts did most of the buying. The start, which was the same as last night to ¼ up, was followed by some additional gains.

Scantiness of country offerings tended to strengthen oats trade, however, was light.

Provisions had only indifferent support. Predictions were current of an increase in hog receipts here and at other packing centers.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—An additional upturn of what seemed because of the large export business in progress here and at Kansas City and Duluth. The close was nervous at 7 8 to 1 3 8 net advance.

In the last half of the session the bulge in corn became more pronounced. Closing prices were unsettled, 3 4 to 7 8c below last night.

"WHAT IS WAR?" READ WHAT GREAT MEN SAY

Back from Europe, where he was making a tour when the world-wide war broke out, Nicholas Klein, well known Cincinnati attorney and who is known here through his legal connection with the recent shoe strike, has made some interesting observations on the European conflict. In writing to The Times about the war Mr. Klein has gathered together the sayings of noted men concerning war in general, which are very interesting. They are as follows:

"Thou shall not kill."—Moses in the Decalogue.

"Take not up the sword. They that take up the sword shall perish by the sword."—Jesus, the Carpenter of Nazareth.

"Always when there is a war, the devil makes hell larger."—A German Proverb.

"Cannons and firearms are cruel and murderous machines."—Martin Luther.

"O, war, thou son of hell!"—William Shakespeare.

"War is the devil's gambling game."—George Fox.

"War is a brain-spattering, wind pipe splitting art."—Lord Bacon.

"War is the business of hell."—Rev. John Wesley.

"There never was a good war or a bad peace."—Benjamin Franklin.

"War never decide any question of right or wrong."—Thomas Jefferson.

"War is the trade of barbarism."—Napoleon Bonaparte.

"A good man never makes a good soldier. The worst man always makes the best soldier. The soldier is nothing but a hired legalized murderer."—Napoleon Bonaparte.

"Providence takes no notice of which side is right or wrong in any war. Providence is always on the side of the heaviest artillery."—Napoleon Bonaparte.

"The military profession is a damnable profession."—The Duke of Wellington, Napoleon's rival and conqueror.

"Napoleon was a mighty gambler, whose game was empires, whose stakes were thrones, whose table, earth, whose dice were human bones."—Lord Byron.

"War is the statesman's game, the priest's delight, the lawyer's jest, the hired assassin's trade."—Shelley.

"My greatest regret is that I have been the author of three wars in which thousands of lives were lost."—Chancellor Prince Bismarck, according to Dr. Busch, Bismarck's biographer.

"The soldier is a hired assassin."—Victor Hugo.

"In the twentieth century war will be dead, the scaffold will be dead, national boundaries will be dead, only man will live."—Victor Hugo.

"I confess without shame that I am tired and sick of war. Its glory is all moonshine. Even success, the most brilliant, is overcast and mangled bodies; the anguish and lamentations of distant families appealing to me for missing sons, husbands and fathers. It is only those who have not heard a shot nor heard the shrieks and groans of the wounded and lacerated that cry aloud for more blood, more vengeance, more desolation. War is hell."—General William Tecumseh Sherman.

"I do not know of a war for the last 300 years that was caused by a soldier or by a soldier's ambition. All wars have economic causes. Without a single exception all wars are wars for trade. They are all caused by bankers, merchants and business men."—The late Frederick Dent Grant, of the United States army, at the peace congress in Chicago in 1909.

"General Sherman said: 'War is hell.' As business men are the cause of all wars, it may be well to say: 'Business is hell.'"—Admiral Swinburne of the United States Navy.

"We do not need killing machines. We need only life giving machines."—Jack London.

"They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation shall not rise against nation, nor shall men learn war any more."—The Hebrew Prophet Isaiah.

"War is organized murder, pillage and cruelty. I acknowledge ourselves to be a bloodthirsty horde of brigands."—General "Chinese" Gordon.

"War is the work of butchers."—Kipling.

"To carry on war, disguise it as we may, is to be cruel. It is to kill and burn, burn and kill, and again kill and burn."—General Young.

WILL YOU UPHOLD WILSON AND PEACE PLANS?

ASKS ATTORNEY GENERAL HOGAN

Democratic Rally Is A Big Success

Standing squarely upon a platform which he termed a "record of achievement," Attorney General Hogan, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator from Ohio, pledged anew his allegiance to the principles of Democracy, and especially those advocated and carried out in the present national and state administrations, before a crowded house at "The Club" auditorium Friday evening.

Inspired by the presence of a big crowd, which waited for one hour and thirty minutes after the appointed time of his coming, the distinguished Senatorial candidate forgot his physical discomforts and for over an hour lauded the achievements of the administrations of President Wilson and Governor Cox. Not one word of apology, but every syllable teeming with praise for what he declared represented redemption of campaign promises and keeping faith with the people

Every seat in "The Club" was filled when he mounted the platform to speak, and the crowd filled the rear of the auditorium to overflowing. It was a magnificent tribute to a tried and true public official whose popularity in this section of the state has never been questioned. The crowd was an enthusiastic one, too, and repeatedly cheered his remarks to the echo.

Will You Uphold Wilson?

The keynote of General Hogan's address was, "Will Scioto county approve or rebuke the administration of President Woodrow Wilson on November 3rd?" By openly espousing every act of the Wilson administration, and pledging himself to stand shoulder to shoulder with the President in the advancement of his legislative program if honored with election to the United States Senate, Mr. Hogan put the issue squarely to the voters of Portsmouth and Scioto county Friday.

None the less fulsome was his praise of the administration of Governor Cox, in which he has played an important part. He challenged the Republican candidates to mention a single legislative act of the present General Assembly, the repeal of which they favor.

Tells of Progressive Laws

Brief, but effective mention was made of the state highway department, the Warnes Tax Law, the workmen's compensation law, the mother's pension law, and other acts which bear the stamp of the Cox administration. The combined legislative program, he declared, included more progressive and humanitarian laws than were enacted during fifty years of Republican rule.

He chided Messrs. Willis and Harding for their so called eleventh hour conversions to the remedial labor legislation passed during the past two years, and called upon them to explain why they did not favor such legislation when they were members of the Ohio General Assembly at a time when the Republican party was in power.

Tribute To Wilson Draws Applause

Passing from state to national issues, he expressed himself unequivocably in favor of the policies of President Wilson, including his Mexican program, his European policy, his attitude on the question of free tolls for coastwise vessels, his tariff law, his currency bill, and all else advocated by the President.

His tribute to President Wilson at the close of his address was a gem of rhetoric and oratory, and drew thunderous applause.

General Hogan's speech at "The Club" was the sixth speech of the day in Scioto county, and despite throat trouble and the fatigue caused by the strenuous day's campaigning, he was in fine form.

His arrival in Portsmouth was one hour and thirty minutes behind time, caused by the heavy roads encountered during his tour through the east [illegible] of the county.

Despite this delay, [illegible] large crowd waited patiently for his coming, a condition which caused cunning, and tendered him a rousing ovation upon his arrival. "Congressman" Inman Made A Speech

Hon. W. A. Inman, Democratic candidate for Congress, who had recently accompanied Mr. Hogan on his Plain Dealer on the Senatorial rural tour during the afternoon, was speaking at "The Club" when the motor Mr. Hogan entered, having preceded the Senatorial candidate from New Boston a half hour before. Mr. Hogan's entrance in to the hall was the signal for an outburst of applause, which was heightened when the band struck up a patriotic air.

Pictures of President Wilson, Governor Cox, Attorney General Hogan, and W. A. Inman adorned the walls and the speaker's platform, which was tastily decorated with flags and bunting.

Mr. Inman spoke for a few minutes after Mr. Hogan arrived, and then introduced the Senatorial candidate, who received another ovation as he advanced to the front of the stage.

Heartfelt appreciation of the kindness of his audience in waiting so long after the scheduled time of his arrival was expressed by Mr. Hogan at the outset. He added that it was but characteristic of the neighborly ties that had always been evident in the relations between the people of Scioto county and Jackson county, his old home.

Glad To See Republicans

He also expressed satisfaction in seeing so many of his Republican friends. Some of them were personal acquaintances, in the ar-

Mr. Hogan's entrance in to the hall was the signal for an outburst of applause, which was serving of the gratitude and confidence of the people of Ohio, it continued. Two of them, Mr. Harding and Mr. Hogan, had been tried out in public office. None of them had any personal superiority over the other.

Are You For Or Against Wilson?

But the great issue involved, continued the editorial, was whether or not you were in favor of the policies of President Woodrow Wilson, or whether you were against them. Those who are, will vote for Mr. Hogan. Those who want to administer a rebuke to the President, will vote for Mr. Harding.

That editorial, the speaker declared, expressed his own personal feeling relative to the contest in which he is now engaged, and he emphasized it repeatedly in his speech.

With this introductory, Mr. Hogan entered upon a discussion of state issues, professing less state pride with the declaration that more progressive and humanitarian laws were passed during the two years of Cox's administration than during the entire fifty years of Republican rule in the state.

He first took up the state highway department, ridiculing effectively the plan of highway improvement advocated by the opponents of the Cox administration. The Republicans, he said, favored state supervision, and local expenditure of money.

"The men who wrote the state highway plank in the Republican platform weren't acting as good a lawyer as a friend, Judge Holt, of this speaker, at the request of the Republican editor, Lyon Helvering was acting.

Tells of Two Kinds of Highways

Mr. Hogan said that there are at present two kinds of highways in the state, which have been termed the Cox highway and the Willis highways.

"The Cox highways are smooth as ice, and substantial in construction, and you can ride with your eyes shut and know you are on a Democratic highway. But on the Willis highway you had better keep your eyes open or you will find yourself out of the machine.

"That the recommendation failed to go through the General Assembly became the members did not have the nerve to fight the tax dodgers like Governor Cox did. Governor Cox has demonstrated that he has the nerve and courage to fight the tax-dodgers and he will win over them again in November."

The Edwards Bill similar to the Warnes Law, was defeated during Governor Harmon's administration by such legislators as the Buchtels, George Crabbe, and others as morally as guilty as they were, the speaker declared.

COUNTY MEETINGS WERE PLEASING TO DEMOCRATS

Democratic leaders in the city and county were jubilant Friday evening over the size of the crowds that greeted Attorney General Hogan and W. A. Inman in their automobile swing over the eastern and south-eastern portions of the county.

Mr. Hogan declared Friday evening that the crowds everywhere, with the exception of the one at Harrisonville, exceeded the crowds which attended the rural meetings in other parts of the state when he and Governor Cox were campaigning together. Especially large were the crowds at Scioto ville and Wheelersburg, which exceeded 300 at each place.

Owing to the heavy roads and the late start at Lucasville, the party was from thirty minutes to one hour and half behind schedule time, but this did not seem to affect the size of the crowds, except at New Boston, where a crowd of about 200 dwindled down to 75 when the party finally arrived, one hour and thirty minutes late. Mr. Hogan spoke at New Boston in Mayor Davis' new theatre building, while the other meetings were all in the open air.

The meetings at Lucasville and Harrisonville were interrupted by men in the audience, plying Mr. Hogan with questions. At Lucasville, a Pike county farmer asked several questions about the Warnes Tax Law and about affairs in Pike county, while at Harrisonville, one man in the audience attempted to start a religious discussion.

Everywhere Messrs. Hogan and Inman were received with enthusiasm, and their statements that they would support President Wilson if elected to Congress met with favor.

The largest crowd of the day was at the government square, where Mr. Hogan spoke about 30 minutes. A big crowd also listened to his speech at "The Club" auditorium.

Taft and Roosevelt in 1912. Who claims him now? I voted for President Wilson in 1912, and propose to support him if elected to the U. S. Senate."

General Hogan then called the attention of his hearers to his promise in 1910, which was that if elected, he would collect interest from the banks where State Treasurers McKinnon and Cameron had deposited state funds clandestinely.

How well he fulfilled that promise was shown in the declaration that last year, over $95,000 was turned into the state treasury from that source alone. Since the beginning of his first term, State Treasurers Cramer and Brennan have turned in over $1,000,000 as an interest on state deposits.

"Why didn't the Republicans do it? It is for them to explain," thundered he amid applause.

Correcting Old Mistakes

"Mr. Harding charges me with extravagance in employing help for my department. It would not be necessary were it not for the fact that we have been engaged in correcting wrongs inflicted up on this state during an administration of which Mr. Harding was lieutenant-governor."

The position of the Democratic party with respect to labor was cited in the discussion of the Workmen's Compensation Law, another splendid piece of legislation, according to the speaker, enacted during the Harmon and Cox administrations.

How About The Workman?

"What of the Republican party's protection to American Labor. It ought to be called Favor to American Capital. I challenge Messrs. Willis and Harding to show a single statute passed by a Republican General Assembly that promotes the health, safety, or comfort of the laboring men of this state. Fifty years of golden opportunity was offered them. They didn't do it. Why? Because the party was controlled by those who were not in sympathy with those who have not. They legislated solely for those who have.

"Both Mr. Willis and Mr. Harding say that they are in favor of the Workmen's Compensation Law. I wonder why they didn't introduce a bill in favor of it when they were members of the General Assembly of the state?

"Governors Harmon and Cox were the men who did it. Labor ing men, stand by those who have stood by you. Stand by the men who helped frame a law which John Mitchell declares is the best compensation law ever enacted in this country."

"Widows and orphans formerly had to go to court to recover damages with ruin against the old common law defenses. Now, the awards are made promptly and without any expense to them.

"Mr. Willis voted to maintain the 'Fellow Servant' law when a member of the General Assembly. Governor Cox is right when he says he can't see how Mr. Willis can face a laboring man after his vote for his vote.

What Is Fair To Most People

"If you are against the tariff law enacted by a Democratic Congress, vote for Mr. Harding. Under the old Republican plan, capitalists went to the ways and means committee and told the ways they wanted. Under the new way, President Wilson told them what in his judgment was fairest to the entire people.

"I'd rather trust the judgment and patriotism of President Wilson than the coterie of capitalists in the making of a tariff law.

"Standpatism and Cannonism can not exist any longer in this country, and Bryan and Wilson have won. The doctrines of Cannon, Aldrich Penrose, and their kind can't stand the light of day, besides the doctrines of Wilson and Bryan.

"If you are against the tariff law, vote for Mr. Harding. The first 'squeal' that went up over that bill came from New York city, which indicates to me that it was a piece of healthy legislation for the country.

"What is going to be the message that you will send to President Wilson on the morning of November 4th. Will it be that those by the vote of his peonantry, has administered to him a rebuke?

"At this time, when all Europe is engaged in war, when its rivers are red with the blood of its slaughter of young manhood, when the wings of peace are spread from North to South and from East to West in America, when the gates of promise swing wider than ever before in this country, what is to be your message to President Wilson?

"If you select me, I will take that selection as a commission and a command to stand by the Democratic platform and for Democratic purposes, and to stand constantly with that great man in the White House, President Woodrow Wilson, keeping my eyes on the 'New Era' and the 'Forward Movement,' now dawning in this great Nation."
